

Rep. Virgil Fludd
D-64

Biography

Virgil Fludd is a State Representative, serving in the 64th House District. The district includes parts of Fayette and Fulton Counties in south metro Atlanta. He serves on the Ways and Means, Regulated Industries, Small Business Development, and Banking Committees. He is Chairman of the House Democratic Caucus and was previously Vice-Chair of the NCSL Revenue and Budget Committee and Co-Chair of the Georgia Working Families Caucus.

During his tenure in office, Rep. Fludd has authored or co-authored over 100 bills to improve the lives of the citizens of Georgia. His legislative successes include battles to stop payday lending, tax reform, district voting and financial education in the state of Georgia. He has won recognition by the Center for Policy Alternatives, AARP, Georgia Association of Personnel Services, Georgia Conservation Voters, the Sierra Club, Georgia Equality, United Auto Workers, Service Employees International Union 1985, Georgia State AFL-CIO and Georgia Association of Educators.

Mr. Fludd has over 20 years of sales, marketing, management and consulting experience. He is currently the President and CEO of the Carvir Group, an executive recruiting and management consulting firm. The company provides corporate recruiting services to companies across the country. He has recruited for positions in general management, finance, sales and marketing, information systems, human resources and operations.

Prior to his present role, Mr. Fludd worked for Bank of America as a Vice President and Sales Manager. He also worked for Xerox Corporation in various sales and management positions.

He has been very active in his community and is a member of the Board of Visitors at Davidson College and the 100 Black Men of South Metro. Mr. Fludd is also Flemming Fellow and a graduate of the Georgia Legislative Leadership Institute, Leadership Atlanta and Leadership Fayette.

Rep. Fludd has served on the boards of the North Fayette Community Association, Dr. Ronald E. McNair Foundation, the Jordan Foundation, the Center for Policy Alternatives and the Board of Advisors for Christian City. He has also served on the boards of the Atlanta Chapter of the Urban Financial Services Coalition, Davidson College Alumni Association, Clayton State University Foundation and the Fayette Community Foundation.

Rep. Fludd has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Davidson College in Davidson, NC. He is married to Carolyn and they are the proud parents of two young adults, Christine and Brendan.